IMMIGRANT AND NEWCOMER WOMEN, SENIORS AND FAMILIES ACHIEVING THEIR FULL POTENTIAL.

"I love going to the Centre and participating in the exercise classes, craft classes and all their functions, especially the luncheons which everyone loves to attend. There are a lot of widowed ladies who rely on this Centre. They are alone and lonely. Some I have spoken to come every day because they have made friends and enjoy doing the programs. I am divorced and have just lost my mother, so this Centre has given me much happiness and a feeling of belonging. It has filled my lonely days by myself. And...is very approachable and a joy to be with. Love her exercise classes, go to all of them" - - Tina Riserbato

"I would like to mention that Elspeth Community Centre has given me the motivation to get up in the morning, knowing that I can come here and be surrounded by seniors and enjoy their company, as well as line dancing and exercising and the wonderful people that run the Centre. This has been such a positive place, it's helped me with my depression, as well as my entire well being.

Thank you, Elspeth for having this wonderful organization and giving us a purpose in life to be around others"

MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

“ehcw continues to deliver on the mandate to support women, seniors, youth and newcomers to achieve their full potential. Life in Canada has continued to be impacted by inflation, as well as challenges with finding employment and housing. Newcomers to Canada, often from war impacted regions of the world and students have been particularly hard hit and found themselves vulnerable to exploitation. These conditions make the services provided by ehcw ever more critical. Once again, ehcw has stepped up to the challenges by expanding staff and services, increasing media outreach and advocacy and continuing to seek more resources from funders to support the programs.

The Board of Directors are proud of the staff at ehcw for their dedication and persistence in supporting the community in so many ways. A well deserving Order of Vaughan award was presented to the Executive Director. Under her leadership, the community of seniors, students and newcomers find a safe, welcoming and nurturing environment at ehcw Centres. ehcw offers to reduce their isolation, poverty and exploitation, for anyone who walks in. We are grateful to the staff, partners and volunteers, as well as the funders, in maintaining quality of services and we look forward to another year where we strive to improve lives.”

CLIENT STORY

A 25-year-old daughter, Sue, reported to ehcw that she and her 5 siblings were continuously subject to witnessing their mother being abused by the father.

The family arrived in Canada in 2010. The abused mother, during their arrival, was afraid of financial uncertainties if she divorced her husband. Her uncertainties kept her in the abusive situation. Her husband was on drugs and would easily get into senseless arguments with family members. There were 5 siblings and the couple living together. He was the only person creating discomfort for everyone, i.e. stealing, shouting, lying, cheating and manipulating the family members.

There was no financial support from Sue's father. As well, Sue had been sexually abused by her father and was afraid to be at home without the company of at least one of the brothers or sisters. When the family celebrated a happy occasion such as their birthdays, new year and Christmas, the father would create a scene with display of anger and destroy the happy moments.

Sue's mother was also afraid of separation due to social and family pressures. However she helplessly witnessed her children being physically, mentally and emotionally abused by her husband, a person who was financially incapable of looking after the family. He was also homophobic and could not accept that one of the children in the family was trans gender. This child was especially targeted and abused.

Sue's mother continued to find excuses for her husband's behaviour. The children started to blame themselves for violence at home and internalized their feelings, which developed over the years. Family felt like they were living in a cage, trapped forever and did not know where to go. They had no friends or family to look up to, in Canada.

ehcw provided counseling to Sue, her mother and siblings, as well applied for priority housing and assisted Sue's brother to get his citizenship. The priority housing application was approved. Divorce proceedings started. The mother is patiently waiting to finalize the divorce process so that now she could start her life as an independent person, free of violence.

CLIENT STORY

A distressed lady came to ehcw, when she had no place to stay and found herself homeless. She was a refugee claimant from Nigeria. Multiple shelters were contacted but none had an opening to take her. Finally, a shelter responded and she was admitted. ehcw booked an Uber to ensure she safely arrived at the shelter. She continued to visit ehcw, attending educational workshops on hearing sessions to prepare her for refugee hearing. She also accessed food and clothing from the Centre to help her with her basic needs. Finding shelter to accommodate was a significant relief for her as this was the first step in getting her settled.

“When I lacked food resources and couldn’t afford to pay my bills, I visited North York Temple, and they referred me to ehcw, assuring me I would get immediate help. When I called Sunder Singh, she answered promptly and invited me to the Center, assuring me they would do everything in their power to assist.

I was nervous about meeting new people. When I met Sunder for the first time, it didn’t feel like our first meeting. The way she spoke with me was outstanding. I shared my situation: I needed employment, food, clothing, and financial support. Sunder educated me about life in Canada, making me aware of various challenges, especially regarding safety, drug addiction, and exploitation. Thanks to her, I am now more aware of my safety. Sunder shared her personal experiences, which inspired me with her dedication to helping newcomers and her motivation to assist others.

Sunder advised me to call her or 911 if I ever felt unsafe while walking home late. She helped me like I was her own daughter, encouraging me to believe in myself, never give up, and stay positive for the sake of my mental health.

I visit the center weekly for food and clothing support, and they have also helped me with transportation tickets. Finding a job was extremely difficult because I had no relatives or references in Canada, which many jobs require. I was falling into depression because I couldn’t pay my bills. Then, I got a call from Sunder about an interview at a company. Clearing that interview was the best feeling ever, and I got hired immediately. The staff at ehcw are positive-minded individuals and always have positive vibes. I learned so much from this organization. When I was in need of a job, they didn’t give up on me. They tried their best to ensure I got employed, and now, thanks to ehcw, I am working.

Even after securing a job, I continue to receive support from the organization. ehcw has been a lifeline for me and many others.

As a youth and newcomer to Canada, I found ehcw to be an essential resource. Everyone who comes to Canada should visit ehcw. It’s a place where you can easily meet new people, receive support with food, and access various services. I highly recommend newcomer youth to visit so they can meet their needs and feel safe.” - Jyoti Rajput

Right away she met me through a zoom meeting and took the time to listen to me and promised to help me as much as she could. Each time I got difficulty I could call her and she was able to listen to me and comfort me. She helped me registered for housing and create a CRA account. She waked me through step by step. I was in the middle of no way and she and her team made sure I got the best help. I want to thank her for all hard work she did for me and lots of other women in my situation and wishing her all the best. TESTIMONIALS

"This community centre is the best medicine for seniors. They give us the opportunity to learn craft, do exercise, line dance, play bingo, painting, and a lot more things like give food to the most needed, but most of all not only they give us the pleasure to be with people our own age and diverse culture, they give us in the summer the joy to hear the laughter and screaming of the kids playing in the next room.

As you all know lately you don't see kids playing in the street anymore. They are busy with their cell phones, starting at the tender age. Our Centre is small so we all know each other and it's like a second family.

My first thanks to Sunder to bring this Centre as it is today. Also, the staff, most of all Anu, she is an amazing person. We all love her." -Anonymous

Recently, cooking/baking class started, which is great to learn from all the different cultures food recipes." – Cristina Paraschiv

ROYAL BANK OF CANADA – WE THANK YOU!!

ehcw extends its sincere appreciation to RBC for taking the lead in supporting our fundraising campaign. The dedicated staff of RBC wholeheartedly participated in our fundraising efforts, with Rina Pillitteri, Regional Vice President of RBC, leading a remarkable team of 19 Fundraising Committee members. Their efforts culminated in the successful kickoff event for International Women's Day – a Sip and Support High Tea – which greatly contributed to ehcw's ability to provide lasting services to positively impact lives. Rina also spearheaded the RBC Family Skate and involved Women of the CIBPA in recognizing ehcw and assisting in ehcw's fundraising initiatives.

Throughout the year RBC staff remained committed to volunteer in ehcw's food distribution to community members who were hard hit by inflation, both in Toronto and Vaughan locations.

The volunteers of the Centre are our backbone. We extend a very special thanks to all of them for giving to the community their precious hours of service. They helped us to plan, develop, organize and participate in our programs and services.

ehcw is grateful to Chand Kapoor, CPA who provided free tax services for seniors and women with financial challenges, during the tax season.

Your support is extremely valued! Donations of all sizes allow us to continue to support newcomer women and their families in gaining life-enhancing resources, developing their skills, meeting other women and building collective capacity. As ehcw is a registered charity, your generous donation will be eligible for a tax receipt. The Centre offers donors a number of options to continue to support our important work in the community:

MONTHLY GIVING

Our monthly giving program is a safe, secure, and convenient way to put your money to work, automatically, each month. At the end of the year you will receive a tax receipt for the total value of all your donations.

ANNUAL GIFTS

You can make general gifts to support the work of the Centre at any time throughout the year. Gifts will receive a tax receipt subject to CRA regulations.

HONOURARY OR MEMORIAL GIVING

Celebrate a special person in your life by making a gift in their honour, or in their memory. The Centre can arrange for a card with your personalized message to be sent to anyone who you would like notified of your gift.

CORPORATE SUPPORT & FOUNDATIONS

To learn more about the Centre's work and opportunities for contributing and longer term giving, please contact the Executive Director, Sunder Singh, at 416-500-2748 for more information.

BEQUESTS

These are gifts made through your will and are the most common form of planned gifts. You can give a specific piece of property, a sum of money, or a percentage of your estate. It's important to choose the planned giving option that is best for you. The Centre recommends that you consult an attorney and/or financial planner to help you decide and make the necessary arrangements for you to begin your legacy.

GIFTS OF SECURITIES

Donating appreciated stocks, bonds and mutual funds is the most tax effective way to make a gift to a registered charity. Whether you donate cash or appreciated securities, you will receive a tax receipt that is eligible for a tax credit.
